Ouch! Lame Back

Rub backache, Lumbago, Soreness and stiffness away—Try this!

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica or maybe from a strain, and you'll get blessed relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on and out comes the pain. It is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

Limb up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle from any drug store, and after using it just once, you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt or cause any more misery. It never disappoints and has been recommended for sixty years.

dismal conference and other distinguished officials, including officers of the United States army and navy, and Senators and Representatives and their wives.

Mrs. Moran was assisted in receiving by her daughters, Mrs. Malcolm McConihe and Mrs. Horace Macfarland, standing in a bower of green and silver, formed of evergreens and crystal and silver icicles erected just within the entrance of the smaller ballroom.

Mrs. Moran wore a draped model of ruby velvet trimmed with a cluster of silver grapes suspended at one side, and touches of silver about the décolletage. She wore a diamond necklace and pendant with diamond ornaments in her hair.

Mrs. McConihe was lovely in a beaded French blue gown over satin of the same color. Miss Elizabeth Murphy wore turquoise blue velvet. Mrs. Macfarland's costume of cloth of gold veiled with jade green georgette was elaborately embroidered with gold and crystal beads with crystal fringe about the hem, and finished with a broad sash of cloth of gold fabric fastened at one side.

There were about 700 guests. An elaborate supper was served at midnight. Members of the Diplomatic Corps and the delegates to the conference and some other prominent guests, fifty in number, were served in the rose room adjoining the ball room, where Mrs. Moran acted as hostess at a table beautifully decorated with La France roses.

Among the distinguished company of guests, the Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. H. C. Wallace, the British Ambassador and Lady Geddes, the Cuban Minister and Mme. de Cespedes, the Norwegian Minister and Mme. Bryn, the Chinese Ambassador to London and Mme. Wellington Koo, the Chinese Minister and Mme. Sie, Admiral de Bon and Captain Roper, of the French delegation to the conference; the Prince de Bearn, the Swiss Minister and Mme. Peter, the Serbian Minister and Mme. Grouitch, the Brazilian Ambassador, Auguste Cochran de Alencar, the Minister of Uruguay and Mme. Varello, the Minister of Venezuela and Mme. Dominici, the Minister from Ecuador and Mme. Cario, the Captain and Mrs. Carlo Huntington, Dr. and Mrs. Reinisch, Senator and Mrs. Joseph I. France, Senator and Mrs. H. W. Keyes, Senator and Mrs. W. M. Calder, Senator and Mrs. Arthur Capper, and Senator P. J. McCumber.

Prince Tokugawa, head of the Japanese delegation to the arms conference, was host at luncheon yesterday at the Shoreham, entertaining in the ball room the members of the Portuguese delegation to the conference.

Prince Tokugawa, who is shortly leaving for Japan, will entertain at dinner at the Shoreham on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Edmund Foss will entertain the younger set at the Congressional Club this evening in compliment to their twin daughters, Miss Marcia and Miss Constance Foss, debutantes of the year. There will be about two hundred guests.

Mrs. Foss is wearing a gown of black net and sequins, and the two debutantes, Miss Marcia and Miss Constance, will be in pink tulle and blue velvet.

A number of dinners among the younger set will precede the party. Miss Marcia Foss and Miss Constance Foss will be the guests at a buffet supper of Mrs. John McAuley Palmer, who is entertaining for her debutante daughter, Miss Mary Palmer. There will be about thirty guests, the party later going to the Foss dance.

One of the smartest of the parties this afternoon is the bridge-tee Mrs. Henry Moore is giving at the Washington Club. There will be nineteen tables and additional guests will come in later for tea.

Assisting Mrs. Moore at the tea tables will be Mrs. William Haywood and Mrs. Joseph Worthington. Receiving with her will be Mrs. William Ham, Mrs. William Bowie and Miss Charlotte Campbell.

The flowers on the tea tables will be pink roses, the same flowers being used in the drawing rooms.

Mrs. Perry Heath entertained at luncheon today for Mrs. Charles Dawes. There were twenty guests. Mrs. Heath will be hostess again at luncheon on Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Getty Chilton, wife of the counselor of the British Embassy, entertained a large group of children at a party yesterday afternoon.

Maj. and Mrs. Parker W. West who entertained at dinner last evening in honor of the Swiss Minister and Mrs. Marc Peter, has as their other guests, the Commandant of the Marine Corps and Mrs. John A. Lejeune, Gen. and Mrs. William G. Haan, Col. and Mrs. T. Q. Donaldson, Representative and Mrs. Daniel R. Anthony, Col. and Mrs. William E. Fowler, Gen. and Mrs. McClelland, of San Francisco. Later the guests were taken to the Moran dance.

Maj. and Mrs. West will give a buffet supper at 7:30 on January 15, having about eighty-five guests.

Mrs. West will be at home on the afternoon of January 15.

The usual winter exhibition rides at Fort Myer will take place in the riding hall every Friday afternoon in January, February, and March, at 2:30 o'clock, beginning January 6. Tickets may be secured by writing to the Commandant of Fort Myer. These are usually held at the door to be delivered on arrival.

Mrs. Elizabeth Walmesley and her daughter, Miss Betty Walmesley, who have been at Lake Placid, N. Y., for several months, will return to Washington tomorrow to spend the remainder of the winter at their apartment at Wardman Park Hotel. Miss Gratia Walmesley, who was also at Lake Placid, returned last Saturday and opened their apartment at Wardman Park Hotel for them.

Vice Consul and Mrs. John R. Fitzpatrick, who have been spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis D. Kelly, are leaving shortly for an extended trip to Toledo, Chicago, and points West.

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Church announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Maxwell Durant Church, to Lawrence D. Blair, of Pittsburgh.

The Secretary of the Italian Embassy and Mrs. Gelsner Celestia entertained at luncheon yesterday in compliment to Princess Lubomirka, wife of the Polish minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Benning Spencer entertained a company of eighteen at dinner last evening in honor of Col. M. F. and Mrs. Day, of England.

Countess Anneley, who will leave Washington today for New York, was the guest of honor at luncheon yesterday of Mrs. Philip Lansdale. Mrs. John McLennan gave a farewell tea for her.

W. Alknoff, of Philadelphia, who is staying at the Shoreham, entertained at luncheon these yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Newbold entertained informally at dinner last evening at Wardman Park Hotel. There were covers for twelve.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brett Noyes will entertain at dinner tomorrow evening.

Mrs. William C. Rivers, wife of the commandant of Fort Myer, will not receive tomorrow afternoon, but will resume her at home on next Friday, January 13.

Congressman and Mrs. Charles R. Conner returned yesterday to their apartment at Wardman Park Hotel, after spending the holidays at their home in Scranton, Pa.

Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood was a luncheon hostess at the Shoreham yesterday.

Miss Maria Ordenez, of Georgetown University Hospital, is established at Holy Cross Academy.

Corcoran Thom is chairman of the floor committee for the annual charity ball for the benefit of the Children's Hospital, to be held January 9 at the New Willard. He will be assisted by an ample committee of men.

Mrs. Charles C. Glover, Jr., chairman of the ball committee, states that arrangements for the event, which is expected to be one of the most brilliant charity functions held the year, have been virtually completed. The committee of ladies associated with the board of directors of the hospital will meet tomorrow to perfect their plans.

The list of patronesses, headed by Mrs. Charles E. Hughes, contains the names of many women prominent in the Capital's social life, including ladies of the Cabinet, of the diplomatic and of high Government official circles.
